

RHS DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

September 26, 2025

1. HeyColts! School spirit week is up- Today, Friday is Clubs' Day and tacky tourist day. Student Council is excited to see everyone dress up! Follow us @stucorhs on Instagram for more information!
2. This coming Monday, we invite all students and staff to wear orange shirts in recognition of National Truth and Reconciliation Day. Wearing orange shows our commitment to honoring Survivors of residential schools, their families, and our shared journey toward reconciliation.
During F Block on Monday, Studio students will be coming around with "Every Child Matters" buttons. All donations will go directly to the Orange Shirt Society, which raises awareness and supports education about the lasting impacts of residential schools. Let's come together as a school community to show our respect, solidarity, and support. Wear orange this Monday to show that Every Child Matters!
3. The Colts Card is an initiative we introduced to Richmond High last school year, and we are glad to announce that we are ready to re-launch this project again this year. So, if a student has performed an act of kindness, any staff member can fill out one of our Colts Cards with that student's name to submit to a draw. Starting in October, students' names will be drawn, and those students will be rewarded with a free cafeteria lunch. Remember, the idea of the Colts Card is not to buy kindness, but to highlight the care that each of us already exhibit. The drop-off box for cards will be in the front office. Thank you, Colts, for all your efforts of being kind, caring and respectful.
