

RHS DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

October 03, 2025

1. Dear Colts, thank you to everyone who donated on Monday's For Every Child Matters Buttons. We collected $337.70! We will be donating this to the Orange Shirt Society, which was founded by Phyllis Webstad, the residential school survivor who shared her story. This society supports Indian Residential School Reconciliation and promotes the truth that EVERY CHILD MATTERS. Well done, Colts! Want to find out more? Visit orangeshirtday.org
2. To all Grade 8 students, If you are interested in representing your grade, the grade eight rep info meeting will be today at Rm228 during lunch, come find out more about the election process!
3. Attention Grade 11 and 12 science enthusiasts! Rule of acquisition #7 states: "Keep your ears open." Did you know that science isn't all balancing chemical formulas? Did you know our school has a science team? Did you also know that they are sometimes competitive!? Today, after school, all grade 11 and 12 students interested in joining this year's SENIOR science team are to come to Mr. Chow's room 227 for a meeting. New recruits are welcome.
4. This is a message for all students who would like to be a Reader for our Remembrance Day Ceremony. Auditions will be held in the Drama room on Tuesday October 7, at lunch. Please come to the Drama Room to sign-up and get a copy of the script to prepare for the audition.
5. Hey Colts, If you are wondering what comes next after high school? Whether you're considering studying in Canada or abroad in the US, UK or Europe, you get a chance to get the answers you need! This Global Post Secondary event will be Oct 8, 4-6pm at Steveston London Secondary!
6. Calling all Cadets who are interested in being a part of our Colour Party for the Remembrance Day assembly, there will be a meeting at lunch in room 127 next Friday October 10th. Please see Ms. Ho for more details.
7. Do you like Japan and Japanese culture? Would you like to meet more Japanese people? Host a student from Japan for one week from November 17th to 24th. More info from Ms. Yasui in Room 102.
