

RHS DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

May 4, 2026

1. Hey colts, it's that time of year again, Student Council grade representative elections are coming up! If you're someone who is willing to talk to other students, participate in the RHS community, demonstrate school spirit, and dedicate your time to act as a voice for your grade, why don't you consider running for student council grade representative?! Come to room 228, Mr. Ma's room, this Friday May 8th to learn more about the application and election process!
2. The Term 3 Core Competency Self-Assessment on the Communication Core Competency is due on Wednesday, May 6. All grade 8-12 students are required to upload their Core Competency Self-Assessment to MS Teams. Detailed instructions including the reflection template were posted on MS Teams and emailed to students.
3. A reminder that ticket sales for this year's RHS Valedictory Ceremony begin on Wednesday, May 6. Grade 12 students and families are strongly advised to familiarize themselves with the NEW ticket sale process which is all online.
4. The annual Cantonese Fair is back! The Canto Club is hosting the afterschool event on May 5th in the multipurpose room. There are games, mahjong, and more! Free admission for all staff and students, gifts, and food! Check out Canto club's team page or ask your friendly execs for more info!
5. Hey Colts! Are you looking for an opportunity to volunteer this summer? Come to the Opportunity and Service Club's next meeting on Tuesday, May 5th during lunch in the library to find out more information on Summer Learning Volunteer Programs! You will gain over 40 volunteer hours at various school sites, including RSS, Burnett, Hugh Boyd, MacNeill, Brighthouse, and more. If you're interested in becoming a student leader and getting service hours this summer, make sure to stop by and meet Mr. Higo, our guest speaker from Richmond Continuing Education. Again, that's Tuesday, May 5th, at lunch in the LLC, see you then!

6. Hey Colts! Do you want to learn more about slam poetry? Want to improve your speech skills and build confidence speaking in front of others? There will be a slam poetry workshop on today during lunch in room 219. Everyone is welcome – no prior experience needed. Bring a friend, and come enjoy some free snacks!
